Maite Wantwadi
Coordinator, YouthBiz

Maite is the YouthBiz Coordinator at Young Americans Center for Financial Education. She has been with the organization for 4 years, the first two years as a programs assistant in Ameritowne and International Towne. She has extensive experience working with youth from various backgrounds and ages. She worked as a daycare worker for 5 years, then as an AmeriCorps member with 3rd-8th graders for 2 years. Maite graduated from college with a degree in Political Science and Business Administration. She enjoys listening to youth’s ideas and helping them develop it into something they’re proud of.
