Young AmeriTowne Quotes from Parents and Teachers of Student Participants

"This was such a GREAT experience ... to show the kids how the 'Real World' operates is so great. My son learned so much and as for adults this experience will show them how much children at this age are truly capable of doing. The whole experience was awesome!"

~ Diane Page, Parent Arrowwood Elementary

"She has been exposed to some of the real life activities such as interviewing for a job, working, and making consumer decisions. Great for children to be exposed to this at a young age"

~ Brenda Wahleithner, Summit View Elementary

"He has learned so much about finances, real world concepts related to money management, business success, etc. This is an awesome learning experience. So organized and age appropriate"

~ Sara Ostrom, Parent Niwot Elementary

"I can honestly say that participating in Young AmeriTowne is the best thing I have done in my 11-year teaching career."

~ teacher, Heritage Elementary School

"I LOVE Young AmeriTowne. I think this is one of the best experiences that 5th graders, actually any student, can have. It teaches you a little bit more about life, yet it's fun. You have to work, you'll earn a paycheck, you have to write checks and keep track of your money. You get an idea of what parents go through every single day of their life and what it takes to raise their children."

~ principal, Wilmore-Davis Elementary School

International Towne Quotes from Student Participants

"I learned how everyone in the world depends on another."

~ Ellie

"I learned how to exchange different currencies. I also learned how to put my knowledge of math to a job."

~ Janine

"Two things I learned are how to exchange currency and how to keep calm while running a business and everything goes out of control."

~ Karim

"Other countries are sooo different the U.S.A."

~ Stephanie
