Why do you want to be a mentor?

I have worked with young people throughout my career, and I want to help them succeed! My role at FMI is to help companies and what better way to combine my passion for working with youth than by helping them grow their business through mentoring!

What unique skills or expertise do you possess that would be helpful to a young entrepreneur?

With 40 years in business strategy and an MBA in Finance and Marketing, I offer a wealth of knowledge to guide young entrepreneurs. My experience mentoring in life skills and academics with youth further gives me the know how to set young entrepreneurs up for success!

What do you like to do for fun? Any special hobbies?

I love the outdoors and new adventures! You can always find me scuba diving, hunting, and traveling!
